"The Little Tycoon" at the Academy Last Night.

There is an indescribable something about Willard Spenser's "Little Tycoon" that always pleases, and last night's performance at the Academy was no exception.

The large audience listened with interest to all the bright, spicy music, and gazed at the rich Japanese costumes and the beautiful stage-settings with wonder and amazement.

Last seen an excellent company gave in "Tycoon," but this year's is a better company, and additional interest attaches to the production in the presence of Mr. Willard Spenser, the originator of every line and note of the popular opera, who in person manages the troupe. Then the scenes of the "Tycoon" of New York harbor and the rich setting of the masquerading scene—are perfect, the novelty of the one and the richness of the other being especially noticeable.

Miss Milliard as Violet was captivating, her singing and acting of the part being far and away the best seen here. So was the Dolly of Miss Lucretia.

Miss —— as Miss Hurricane, the fair, fat and forty! chaperone of the tender school-girls, was quite clever, whilst Mr. Aldrich Libby as "Alvin Barry" displayed a good tenor voice and ease of acting.

In the pranks of Gen. Knickerboxer, Mr. H. Ryley was "immense," and in his topical song, "Now That's What I Think, Don't You?" was forced to respond to many encroaches.

The rest of the cast were all good, not omitting the eccentric Teddy of Mr. Jones, Neely, and the rich voice of Mr. J. Atchell Libby.

And now a word for the chorus and orchestra. The former is beautifully drilled, sings with much vim, and goes through the frequent and odd manuals with plenty of grace and spirit.

The latter, under the able direction of Mr. Charles E. Borgman, consisted of fifteen pieces, and was most excellent.

The electrical effects, which required much time and labor all during yesterday, were in smooth working order, and proved a valuable addition.

Last night's performance was in every way a great success, and Mr. Spenser to be congratulated on his success in his efforts to please and to give the public of Richmond theatrical productions with no stinting of details, etc.

The company plays two more nights and to-morrow's matinee, and will certainly be well patronized.—Richmond (Va.) Dispatch.

At the Opera House to-night.

An honest Swede tells his story in plain but unmistakable language for the benefit of the public. "One of my children took a severe cold and got the croup. I gave her a tea spoonful of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and in five minutes later she began to sneeze. By this time I had to catch up with the gathering in her throat. Then she went to sleep and slept good for fifteen minutes. Then she got up and vomited; then she went back to bed and slept good for the remainder of the night. She got the croup the second night and again I treated her with the same good results. I write this because I thought there might be some one in the same need and not know the true merits of this wonderful medicine."

From St. Joseph Hospital.

A young girl here had been suffering for 12 years with Blood Diseases until she had lost the use of her limbs, and was subject to many troubles incident to the disease. The physician declared that her life would come to a speedy end. After taking S. S. S. she recuperated so fast that it was plain that she had obtained a new lease on life, and she continued to grow better until her permanent cure was assured. Many physicians in our principal cities obtained signal benefit from S. S. S. and it has become quite a favorite in our house.

S. S. S. has relieved me of a terrible Scrofula, from which I had suffered for years. It affected my nose first as catarrh, then carries off the bone, and continued to eat until it destroyed the soft bone in the right side of the nose, when went into my throat, and later on to my lungs, it looked as if I was doomed. S. S. S. has cured me, and also cured my little daughter of the same disease.

Letter From Arkansas.

OZARK, FRANKLIN CO., ARK., Nov. 18th, 1890.

Dear Roundabout:—If you will allow me the space I will write my letter to you. Some time ago, and at the same time answer many questions of inquiry that have been propounded to me recently by several private correspondents. We are in the southern terminus of the Ozark mountains, immediately upon the Arkansas, river. The rivers, hills, mountains, plains and level tracts of the great prairie are so inter-associated that at an elevation a few hundred feet above this town, and from the top of one of our local mountains, an observer can get a view that beggars description in point of beauty, scenery, and general and industrial people; cotton is the staple product, and it is令人 to the eye and ear to hear and see the farmers some picking cotton, some ginning and some astride of the large bale, and with the old time Kentucky oxen, in hand, going to market with a load of cotton day in and day out, with the native Arkansas oxen.

An average of about fifty bales per day have been coming into town, some to be ginned and all to be sold and shipped. Corn does well here; it is now selling at 65cts. per bushel often 75cts. at prime. This country is thickly wooded with post oak, some pine and other timber.

Schools are abundant, and all well patronized. Every school district has a number one school house, provided with maps, charts, globes, chalk, blackboards, bells and unbroken discipline. Each teacher is paid by the month. Besides the public schools, most every village has an elegant private school, or seminary or college. Here in Ozark we have the Franklin Female Seminary. This is a fine school, has a full corps of teachers for all the departments; Mrs. Lee, has charge of the department of music and German.

The whole people here look at the Seminary as the pride of this country.

Your humble servant will begin teaching in the public school the first of December. We have been living in this State but five weeks, yet we are greatly improving in health, so much hospitalit that I seem a native. I cannot close this letter without mentioning the fact that this State is proudly blessed with Josiah H. Shim as State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

A better and more energetic man has directed the education of this State for Arkansas. I must not forget to mention my boy, who is now fourteen months old, and is able to scamper about everywhere. He is strong and healthy so far, and we thank God for having given us such a little boy.

The flora indigenous to Arkansas is not very varied, but has an aroma that attracts the passerby and fills his soul with natural interrogations. We are now enjoying fresh new potatoes of the second crop for dinner, and of course seasoned them with regular butter produced by cotton seed through the cows. It has been a great treat here the past autumn, but we have now delightful warm and sunny weather. I am glad to notice the improvements in Frankfort and in Central Kentucky. I am always glad to welcome the ROUNDABOUT in our home. Will cheerfully notice any private letter from relatives or friends with the eye always upon the happiness and prosperity of my former home and associates.

I am yours very truly,

J. B. LEA.

GEO. A. LEWIS. Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, NOVEMBER 29, 1890.

Death of Mrs. Chinn.

Mrs. Lizzie Hunt Chinn, wife of Frank Chinn, Esq., died at her home in South Frankfort Tuesday, about one o'clock, after a protracted illness from heart disease. She was a most excellent Christian lady, greatly beloved by a large circle of friends and relatives, and will be a great loss to her family, her Church and the community. Her long illness was borne with Christian fortitude and she contemplated her approaching death with the utmost calmness, expressing herself as perfectly resigned to the Master's will, and at last gently and sweetly fell asleep in the arms of the Saviour. She was the oldest daughter of the late Major Hunt, of Greenville, Mississippi, and her dying hours were soothed by the tender care of her aged mother, who was summoned to her bedside from her home in the South several weeks ago.

It is a singular fact that her death occurred upon the fifteenth anniversary of her marriage and at about the same hour of the day at which the wedding ceremony was performed.

She leaves a husband and four little daughters to mourn her death, who have the warmest sympathy of the entire community in their great affliction. The funeral took place Thursday from the family residence, and the large attendance at the same attested the high estimation in which she was held by the community at large.

Died Suddenly.

Mr. Elisha Merchant, a well known citizen of the South Side, died suddenly at his home on Shelby street Monday night. He was a paint r and worked all day Monday at his trade; but at 11 o'clock that night was attacked with congestion of the lungs, which caused his death in about an hour. He was 53 years of age, and during the war he was a soldier in the 9th Kentucky U. S. Cavalry. His funeral took place Wednesday afternoon from his late residence.

He leaves a widow and seven children, most of them grown, to mourn his loss.

An Ugly Blow.

Mr. Alex. C. Henry and a man by the name of Abbott had some words on Broadway Monday afternoon, which resulted in Abbott striking Mr. Henry in the face, cutting his cheek in a fearful manner. It is thought Abbott used a brass knuck or some hard substance, as the wound had the appearance of having been made

The Con-Con March.

Mrs. L. D. Holloway has composed a piece of music with the above title, which she has dedicated to the members of the Constitutional Convention and others, and is a very fine production. Mrs. Holloway played it for her guests on Thursday evening and it was very highly complimented. She is a first-class performer upon the piano, and the piece was rendered in splendid style.

He Got There.

Prof. Went says that it rained early Tuesday morning and also on Friday night of last week, and that his claim, that if it rains on Monday it will rain two more days in that week, held good. Well as we didn't get up before day Tuesday morning nor stay up all night Friday night, we'll have to own up that we are knocked out, and he knows more about running the weather than we do.

City Elections.

The City Council has issued an order for an election to be held on Saturday next, for Councilmen, and also for an election to be held on the first Saturday in January, for School Trustees. Following is a list of the voting places and officers of election:

Second Ward—Polls in the basement of the Capital Hotel, on Ann street. Officers—J. B. Williams and H. W. Welch, Judges; J. W. Hawkins, Sheriff; Jerry Brislan, Jr., Clerk.

Third Ward—Polls in Sheriff's office, at the Court-house. Officers—H. I. Todd and W. C. Williams, Judges; W. H. Julian, Sheriff; C. M. Walcutt, Clerk.

Mr. John R. Shaw Dead.

Mr. John R. Shaw, familiarly known as "Mack" Shaw, died Wednesday morning at the residence of his son, Mr. James R. Shaw, at Jetts Station, in this county. Mr. Shaw was an upright, honest citizen, whose sunny, genial nature made friends of all he met. He was 64 years old and had been a sufferer for many months with dropsy, which finally attacked his heart and produced death. For many years he was a resident of Woodford county, near Millville, but for about thirty years was connected with the Kentucky Penitentiary as superintendent of the blacksmithing department. About a year ago he gave up his position and together with Mr. Coley Whitehead opened a flour and feed store on Ann street, in which business he continued until his death.

He leaves a wife and seven children, all grown, to mourn his loss; who have the sympathy of a large circle of friends, both in this city and county. The funeral took place Thursday afternoon from the residence of his son at Jetts Station, the services being conducted by Rev. George Darsie, of the Christian Church.

Leg Broken.

Mr. Spencer C. Cryer, the contractor, was standing upon the joists of the portico at the new residence of Mr. P. S. Rule, Tuesday afternoon, giving directions to his hands about the work, when his foot slipped down between the joists, he lost his balance and fell over backwards to the ground, about two feet below. In the fall his right leg was caught between two of the joists, and the wrench produced a compound fracture of the bone between the knee and ankle. He was taken to his home on the corner of Campbell and Logan streets, where Dr. E. E. Hume reduced the fracture and he is resting as easy as possible, but will hardly be out again this winter. Mr. Cryer has been a sufferer for some time with rheumatism in the same limb, and this trouble probably caused him to lose his footing upon the joists and fall over.

Won the Honors.

At the oratorical contest between the literary societies of Centre College at Danville, on Friday of last week, the first honor was awarded to Mr. Martin D. Hardin, of this city, son of Gen. P. W. Hardin. Mr. Hardin will very likely be chosen to represent Centre College in the inter-collegiate oratorical contest, which will be held in Lexington next spring.

Misinformed.

We were misinformed in regard to the shooting of a negro convict on the farm of Mr. E. W. Ayres last week. Mr. Joe Cromey, Mr. Ayres' trainer, had some trouble with the negro and shot at him but missed his aim.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

FRANKFORT, NOVEMBER 29, 1890.

The New Paper.

The Daily Democrat, which is published in the interest of the straight Democratic ticket for Councilmen and School Trustees, made its appearance on Monday. It is small but promises to make things lively before the election.

Ankle Sprained.

Mr. Richard Suter, one of the brakemen in the yard of the L. & N. Railroad, stepped off of the engine in that portion of the yard in Belopoint Tuesday night, for the purpose of lighting his lantern, when his foot turned under him, spraining his ankle so painfully that he has since been confined to his home.

Died in Nashville.

Miss Mary Payne, a lady who has many friends and relatives in this county, died suddenly at her home in Nashville, Tenn., on Tuesday of last week, with heart disease. Miss Payne spent the summer in this vicinity, had only returned home a few weeks ago and her death was a great shock and surprise to her friends here.

Fell Down Stairs.

Mr. Hugh Gaines, junior member of the firm of Gaines & Whittington, livery men, was coming down stairs at the stable of the firm, on North Madison street, Tuesday, when he lost his footing and fell to the ground. In attempting to save himself threw out his left arm, and his whole weight coming upon it sprained the arm painfully.

Convict Caught.

A negro convict by the name of William Anderson, who was sent to the Penitentiary from Lexington for three years, on a charge of forgery, and who made his escape from a railroad camp near Georgetown about a year ago, was recaptured while at work upon a farm near Lexington on Monday, and returned to the Penitentiary Tuesday morning.

Most men, otherwise strong in body and mind, will become unhappy and break down when afflicted with Rheumatism. If they would only try Salvation Oil they would find relief at once. Price 25c.

All the keys of Windsor Castle were recently stolen, but even this does not interfere with the rapid sale of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Fairview.

Miss Bertha Hedges visited the family of Mr. J. W. Shoush last week.

Prof. H. F. Jordan preached at the school-house last Sunday evening.

Hog killing is going on lively now.

Mr. Richard Kirk lost a load of hay by fire last week. The fire was caused by sparks from a traction engine which was passing by. His loss was about $50.

Little Susie Hieatt is on the sick list this week.

Mr. Moses Perkins and his grand daughters, Misses Melissa and Willie Perkins, of Shelby county, visited Mr. J. L. Hieatt and family last Sunday.

The candy pulling at Mrs. Bettie Hedges' Wednesday evening was done by the candy ladies of this community, and was a very enjoyable evening to those who did not eat any of the candy.

G. D. HANCOCK, Teacher.

Life Worth Living.

This is a question that would be answered very differently by different individuals. To some living is a pure enjoyment to others a burden. To a man or woman who never feels well, who arises in the morning unrefreshed, with a tired, languid feeling, life is indeed burdensome. This is the result of a surfeited liver, a defective condition of the kidneys, a foul stomach, &c. This condition can all be quickly changed and life made happy by the new remedy—Dr. Hale's Home Remedy. It is sweet, bland and native tonic. It cures all biliousness, constipation, inaction of the liver and kidneys and makes a person feel new. 50 cent packages at Phil. Carpenter's drug store, South Side.

To Ocala.

The L. & N. will sell round trip excursion tickets to Ocala, Fla., on one limited first class fare Nov. 28th and return. Will sell 30 days account of meeting of National Farmers Alliance and Industrial Union.

E. P. BRYAN,
Gen. Agt.

Gratifying to All.

The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrates the value of the qualities on which its success is based and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Company.

10-4t.

Mark Twain never knew the amount of joy an old farmer experienced over the recovery of an acre's weight chicken cholera cure, which is warranted to cure every time. Sold by PHIL CARPENTER.

Holiday Goods.

I have just received a large and elegant stock of holiday goods, which will be opened on Monday. Prices lower than ever before.

Mrs. Carswell,

Of Leroy, N. Y., was dying of Neuralgia of the right side, according physician had made his last visit and said there was no possible chance of her living but a few hours. Capt. Holloway's Lunch.

The splendid entertainments here-tofore given by Capt. L. D. Holloway and wife were completely overshadowed by the elegant supper which they gave to the members of the Constitutional Convention and their friends generally, on Thursday evening. A large number of our people were in attendance, who pronounce it unsurpassed by anything of the kind ever given in this city. The Con. Con. March was played by Miss Holloway and Miss Jennie McDonald, and was received with great applause. Everyone enjoyed themselves and the Captain was immensely delighted to have so many of his friends with him.

A Pleasant Affair.

The social dance given by Miss Ross Caplinger, who lives several miles below this city, on the Lewis Ferry pike, on last Friday night, November 20, 1890, was a grand success in every sense of the word, and every one enjoyed themselves very much. The occasion was one long to be remembered.

Lizzie Evans.

FOGG'S FERRY.

The Atlanta Constitution, of November 13th, has the following complimentary notice of a new principle of "Fogg's Ferry," the comedy in which Mrs. Fogg, the widow, Lizzie Evans will appear at the Opera House next Wednesday night: "Lizzie Evans certainly deserved the audience, which was so justly flattering in size and favor, at her rendition of 'Fogg's Ferry' last evening. The little star is a spright and vivacious creature, stout with her pranks and sparkling humor. She is all that one may desire to see in the soubrette—nimble and graceful in the 'light fantastic,' well equipped with wit, especially original in both facial and pathetic personifications. All the requirements of the role of the impulsive, naive and cherry 'Chip,' the ferrymen's sweetheart, were fulfilled with grace. Of the many other famous figures was Mr. Harry Mills, a clever dancer and songster, as well as accomplished comedian. Miss Evans and Mr. Mills rendered several duet songs and a portion of which were highly appreciated and enjoyed. Miss Evans sings exceedingly well, considering her little range of voice.

Miss Clifton was the most pugnacious of the Ferrymen, and the ferrymen's wife, and she extricated herself of humor from the garb of Mrs. Fogg. The Messrs. Brooks, Verney, Everton and Spencer were also in the effective parts, and showed the humor of the play. 'Fogg's Ferry' is teeming with lively episodes and well-defined incidents, which appeal to every mind. The action of the plot is brisk and highly entertaining, and the audience seemed to enjoy the general performance immensely.

The Buccaneers of Old.

Flamed the skull and cross bones, their sign, defiantly at the mouth of their eastern pirate, not to be seen at sea, but upon the high mountains of standard remedies, shuns under various disguises. His hole and corner traffic never has to any degree affected Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, although that standard invigorating and corrective medicine has been directed.

Cheap local bitters, composed of very unscientific ingredients, are to be seen in the market, of some tonic bark, are still sometimes recommended as a remedy kindred to those of America's chosen family medicines. These nostrums, however, are not preventive of disease pursue its successful career, overrunning malaria, dyspepsia, nervous prostration, rheumatism, sciatica, and rheumatic ailments, not only on this, but on many continents.

Mr. Bigstaff requests us to say he will meet the tobacco men at Frankfort on the 1st of December in December, at which time and place he will circulate the necessary subscription paper.

ROUNDABOUT-Supplement.

VOL. XIV. . . NUMBER 12

FRANKFORT, KY., NOV. 29, 1890.

The City Election.

Editor Roundabout:

But for the plans of those who desire that the back track shall be taken and the city business and city schools be turned over to the avarice of petty politicians to parcel out for party service, there would have been no special contest in the city election. In fact, any member of the best class of citizens, men of experience, judgment and financial ability would readily consented to serve the people, and it would only have been an agreeable rivalry of choice among any number of excellent candidates.

But there are those who favor the doctrine that city offices and the city schools shall be considered and classed as spoils to be divided out as the rewards for petty party service, and that the police force shall be subject to the same demoralizing influences.

So far has this bad policy extended that individuals outside the city and members of the Constitutional Convention have been invoked and solicited to embroil themselves in our city affairs, to take part in our local contest, in aid of this effort to take the back track and reduce city offices, city schools and the city police to the level of scheming politics. The people of Frankfort have a more vital interest in the Constitutional Convention than the success of any ticket, and this interest is as certain to be recognized and upheld by the policy he pursued by the disengaged authors of the bogus partisan movement as night follows day. It is an evidence of weakness and a bad cause when outside people, totally unacquainted with our city affairs, are brought here to become embroiled in city contests.

Are the people of Frankfort ready to take the back track? Are they ready to undo the work built up by the aid of such men as the late Col. and Mason Brown, Dr. Mills, Thos. B. Farnum, others speeded Common School system, blessing hundreds of children with the advantages of education under experienced teachers? Do they want this work blasted with the breath of political demagogery? Do they want city business put under the same ban? Do they want the police to become politicians and hold office subject to the demands of party service?

These are the serious questions to be decided at the December election.

The authors of the so called Dem or Contra ticket, claimed to be selected without authority, favor the back track and the demoralizing policy we have indicated, and the Citizens' Ticket favors holding on to the school system as it is, and no politics but the best men for guardians of city business.

There ought not to be any doubt as to which ticket should be supported by the independent citizen? Politics has no legitimate connection with city business, the city schools or the city police, it only gets there by being thrust in to blast and destroy.

Keep it out by defeating the scheme to introduce it.
